

Tanabata Festival hosted by the Japanese Lesson Class

On July 1st, 3rd, 4th and 6th, each Japanese lesson class enjoyed the Tanabata Festival by listening to a story telling performance about Tanabata. Then they wrote their wishes on a small strip of paper, shared them with each other, and then tagged their strips to bamboo grass. Everyone had the opportunity to enjoy one of the Japanese's famous national events.

